**REP. TOM EMMER:

** Hello everyone, Congressman Tom Emmer here wishing you all a blessed holiday season, hopefully spent with those you love. This is my favorite time of the year. It's the season of giving, a time to help our community and others who are less fortunate than ourselves. Minnesotans are some of the most generous and giving people, which is why this year I'm happy to have our district office serve as a Toys for Tots drop-off site. We're looking forward to helping those in central Minnesota give back, and I encourage everyone to donate today. Our office will be accepting donations until December 20th, so visit our website at emmer.house.gov to learn how to donate again today. In addition to the spirit of giving, the hope and promise we feel as we ring in the new year is yet another reason why we love the holidays. For many Minnesotans, 2016 was a tough year. Some of you may have seen your family's health care costs rise exponentially, or maybe you've had a hard time keeping your small business afloat because of burdensome and obsolete regulations. While many of you have faced hardships this past year, the idea of what this new year will bring is very exciting. I'm personally looking forward to the new year because I know that those of us in Congress have big plans to turn this country around and get America moving again. I'm excited to work with the new presidential administration, with my colleagues in Congress, to better serve all of you. Remember, we're here to help you, so if there's ever anything you need, don't hesitate to reach out to us. And once again, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
