REP. TOM EMMER:

Hi everyone, Tom Emmer here. We're kicking off what is an historic week out here in Washington, D.C. At this week's inauguration, we welcome a new administration, and we're going to witness a transfer of power from one administration to the next. This week, thousands of Minnesotans and hundreds of thousands of Americans will descend on our nation's capital to participate in the swearing-in of our 45th president of these United States. So if you're in Washington for the inauguration, be sure to stop by our open house to say hi on Thursday, January 19th in Canon 315. We'll be here between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. With the new Trump administration comes an incredible opportunity to fix our failing health care law, to ensure the safety of Americans and our allies, and to enact tax and regulatory reform to get our economy back on track. The American people made it clear that they want things to change, and we must deliver. Happy Inauguration Week, and thanks for listening.
