

Rep. Tom Emmer on Protecting Illegals, Not Minnesotans: That's the Walz Way

Broadcast: June 09, 2025 • Duration: 0:58

*HOST:

 He's likable until you start to get to know Tim Walz and his policies.

*REP. TOM EMMER:

 Donald Trump's modern-day Gascoppo is scooping folks up off the streets. He's sleeping at 3 o'clock this morning. There's ICE agents out there arresting public safety threats and national security threats in his state. You ought to be thanking ICE and not vilifying them. A giant ICE raid happened in Worthington. Who asked me to look around at all the children in crime and he said, this is what terrorism looks like in America today. He talks about this wall. I always say, let me know how high it is. If it's 25 feet, then I'll invest in the 30-foot ladder factory. ICE St. Paul also arrested a citizen of Mexico who was convicted of possessing pornographic material of a minor on a work computer. Tim's been a complete disaster in Minnesota. Two days after his arrest last August, he walked out of jail. ICE had placed a detainer on him. He was allowed to go free. A governor from Minnesota who's, I mean, he's a sick puppy. He's a sick puppy.
