**COMMITTEE CHAIR:

** And then we should have a copy of this resolution. If it has, the clerk will report the resolution. Resolution to name a new Republican member of the committee to subcommittees of the committee and for other purposes. Resolve that Mr. Ender is named to the subcommittee on financial institutions, the consumer credit, and the subcommittee on monetary policy and trade. Furthermore, that Mr. Pelosi is reassigned to the subcommittee on housing and insurance from the subcommittee on monetary policy and trade. The chair recognizes himself. One, I want to take the opportunity to welcome our newest member of the committee, who a little bit earlier intuitively is on this side of the aisle, and is a nice problem for my party to have. The gentleman hails from the 6th District of Minnesota, it's a long number of does, which I assume he sees a whole lot more of, so now he's in the 5th District of Texas. I've been informed that Tom and his wife, Jackie, are the proud parents of seven children. I have been informed that he wanted three, she wanted four, so they compromised on seven. I hope that the spirit of compromise will continue on in his service to the committee. Apparently he played collegiate hockey for the University of Alaska Fairbanks, although he doesn't appear to still have all of his own teeth. I'm informed that he practiced law for 28 years. It is not prohibited to be an attorney to serve on this committee. Tom also previously served in the Minnesota House of Representatives. He also previously served as a radio host. Just what we need to know, people like to talk on the committee. Otherwise, if all good, I'm just going to please give a big welcome to Tom Ender.

**REP. TOM EMMER:

** Thank you. Thank you, David. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you so much.
