**REP. TOM EMMER:

** Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the Jobs and Investor Confidence Act of 2018. Terms like capital formation, liquidity, and qualified investor may sound like Washington jargon. In reality, they represent a few of the many important building blocks that drive our markets and create jobs and opportunity around our country. On the heels of the largest financial regulatory relief effort in nearly a decade, the Jobs Act 3.0 will breathe new life into the entrepreneurial spirit that makes our country so special. This package of national reforms includes several policy changes to help small businesses and startups access the most liquid and vibrant markets in the world, including the text of our Main Street Growth Act, which the House unanimously adopted last week. I appreciate the efforts of the Chairman and Ranking Member to bring this significant legislation to the floor, and encourage all of my colleagues to support the continued growth of our economy and vote YES on the Jobs Act 3.0. I yield back.
