**REP. TOM EMMER:

** Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Dan Glessing, the newest President of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation. Dan has served as Vice President and as a member of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Board for more than eight years. He recently was elected to serve as the 14th President of the Bureau on November 19th, following the announcement of Kevin Papp's retirement in March, following 16 years as his position as President. Our office and I personally have been fortunate to know and work with Dan for many years already. Dan and his family are the definition of the great American farming tradition. Always, he has always been a steadfast advocate for our state's farmers and producers. I'm proud that Dan, his wife Sina, and the entire Glessing family call Minnesota's 6th District home. Dan, there are many challenges ahead, but I know you will continue to be a leader for all of Minnesota's farmers, ranchers, producers, and agribusinesses. Congratulations on your new leadership role, and I look forward to working with you and everyone in Minnesota at the Farm Bureau on behalf of Minnesota's ag community. I yield back.
