

Rep. Tom Emmer on Emmer Honors National Police Week

Broadcast: May 12, 2015 • Duration: 0:58

PRESIDING OFFICER:

Without objection, the gentleman is recognized for one minute.

REP. TOM EMMER:

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of National Police Week, when we remember the sacrifice of our nation's law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty. This year's commemoration falls during a time of heightened tension between our officers and the civilians they have sworn to protect. And it serves as a solemn reminder to all of us the importance of communication, duty, and mutual respect. Today and every day, we honor the lives of our fallen, including Officer Tommy Decker of Cold Spring, Minnesota, who was killed in the line of duty in 2012 while doing a welfare check. May they have eternal rest. May their legacy of service to their communities live on. And may those they left behind find comfort and peace. Blessed are the peacemakers. I yield back.
