

Rep. Tom Emmer on Rep. Emmer: What I Am Most Thankful For

Broadcast: November 22, 2016 • Duration: 1:37

*REP. TOM EMMER:

 Hello everyone, Tom Emmer here wishing you all a Happy Thanksgiving spent with those you love the most. This is personally one of my favorite holidays because in addition to spending quality time with my wife Jackie and our seven kids and the amazing turkey dinner, it's also a time to be thankful for the many gifts that life has given us. On this holiday, it's the tradition for many families to go around that table and say what they are thankful for the most. In honor of that worthwhile tradition, I would also like to share what I am most thankful for with all of you. Besides my wonderful family, what I am perhaps most grateful for is that I have the good fortune of living and raising my family in the United States of America. We are all so lucky to live in the land of the free and the home of the brave, to live in a country blessed with some of the best and brightest individuals who have explored new horizons and pioneered new opportunities, who have opened doors so that all of us have the chance to succeed. We are lucky to live in a country that allows us to speak our minds and pursue our dreams, no matter what our background might be. Our country is a beacon of hope around the world and I will continue to be thankful each and every day for the chance to live in the best nation on earth. Not only am I thankful to live in the United States, but I am thankful to be representing you in Congress. Please remember, if there is anything you ever need from me, don't hesitate to ask. Thanks for listening and once again, have a safe and happy Thanksgiving.
