LARRY:

whip. Tom Emmer from Minnesota. Yes, Mr. Emmer, Tom Emmer. Good to see you. January 2021. You know this story. Joe Biden executive order that the U.S. Census Bureau factor in all residents, legal and illegal. And then, of course, as you also know, Mr. Emmer, that will determine the volume of House seats and it will determine the Electoral College for president. I would suggest you want to stop this, but I haven't heard much about it before today's news story.

REP. TOM EMMER:

Well, Larry, first off, thanks for having me. Second, this is outrageous. Yeah, we cannot let the Biden we can't let our democratic process be distorted by Biden's border crisis. And House Republicans are going to continue to stand up for election integrity and more now than ever. It's not just about the congressional seats. It's about the next election. You've got to make sure that the people that are citizens that have the right to vote are voting and not having people that should not be in the polls distorting the outcome of these races.

LARRY:

I mean, they've told, I guess, you know, this is apocryphal. This executive order, the beginning of his whole term, January 21. So this was open borders. This was apocryphal. You can probably overturn it if you had a good Republican president in there. But other than that, the next census is in. Let's see. The next census is coming up in June. This is as of June twenty twenty three. You've got to change this. I mean, this is they're talking about roughly a dozen seats, Tom, and maybe it'll be more by the time I think it's no. Twenty two seats. I beg your pardon. Twenty two seats. Tom Emmer.

REP. TOM EMMER:

Well, Larry, let's face it. Under the Trump administration, they were making fixes to the Census Bureau and the way they count citizens as opposed to everybody and anybody, regardless of whether they're legally here or not. That whole process changed as soon as this administration came in. Keep in mind, we were expecting to pick up more seats in Arizona. We were expecting to pick up more seats in Texas. You can go around the country. We were expecting to lose seats in blue states like my own Minnesota. And guess what? After they changed the internal operation of how the census is counting people, Minnesota kept the seat. Arizona did not benefit the way we thought it should benefit. Same with Texas. It's a real problem. And we're going to need a Republican president. It'll be Donald Trump. And we've got to have the Senate and the House. There's some serious things that have to be done in this country to put us back on track.

LARRY:

Thank you, Tom Emmer. We appreciate it.
