**REP. TOM EMMER:

** Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Anoka County Farm Bureau. As a supporter of agriculture in Minnesota's 6th District, the Anoka County Farm Bureau does an excellent job promoting the interests of Minnesota's farmers and their products and produce. For many farmers in Minnesota, farming is not just a job. It's a way of life often passed from one generation to the next. They work seven days a week, from dusk till dawn, to ensure that our groceries are stocked and Minnesotans are fed quality food. It's not an easy job, but it's a vital one. As the backbone of Minnesota's economy, our farmers deserve as much help as possible. Without the constant support of the Anoka County Farm Bureau, our district and our state would not be where it is today. That's why I not only want to congratulate the Anoka County Farm Bureau on this very special anniversary, but I want to thank them for supporting Minnesota farmers for the past century, and we look forward to a long future. Note: This appears to be a congressional floor speech rather than an interview, as evidenced by the formal address to "Mr. Speaker."
