Broadcast: July 18, 2017 • Duration: 1:07

REP. TOM EMMER:

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate my friend, Chris Colburn, on his recent induction into the Minnesota Business Hall of Fame. Every year, Twin Cities Business honors successful businessmen and women in Minnesota who have displayed strong leadership and a unique vision. During his time as President and CEO of Colburn's, Chris Colburn has helped build this family business, which was established in 1921, to 54 full-service supermarkets across Minnesota and North Dakota, in addition to their 70 convenience and liquor stores. Proving himself a true visionary, Chris expanded Colburn's even more when he obtained an online grocery delivery business. While at the time it was seen as a controversial move, Chris had the foresight to go where the market was going for his customers. Events like this are exactly why Chris has been selected to join the Minnesota Business Hall of Fame. Chris Colburn is a business leader in Minnesota and beyond. He truly deserves this recognition and honor. I yield back.
