

Rep. Tom Emmer on LEADERSHIP PRESS CONFERENCE – 2025

PRESS CONFERENCE

Broadcast: April 29, 2025 • Duration: 1:40

*REP. TOM EMMER:

 President Trump's first 100 days in office can be described in four words. Promises made, promises kept. Thanks to President Trump, the border is more secure than it's ever been and criminal, illegal aliens are off our streets and out of our country. Under President Trump, American energy is being unleashed, domestic production empowered and historic investments have been secured. We've seen waste, fraud, and abuse in the federal government exposed and rooted out like never before. And common sense has replaced the woke nonsense that had saturated our government and way of life. President Trump has moved at a record pace to bring America back from the pit the Biden administration left us in. With Joe Biden in office, our nation endured the influx of millions of unvetted illegal aliens, criminal aliens, from all over the world into our communities. American businesses were held back by an expansive regulatory state and policies that lack truth and disregarded reality put our children and families in jeopardy. But no more. The American dream is being renewed and the American people can once again be prosperous, safe, and free. But to keep this train going, Congress must act. Our members are hard at work crafting a reconciliation bill that will deliver President Trump's America First agenda for our great nation. And we won't rest until we get it done because failure is simply not an option. And I yield to our leader, Steve Scalise.
