**REP. TOM EMMER:

** Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Tammy Ovison of Waite Park, Minnesota. Tammy is an outstanding child care provider in Minnesota's 6th Congressional District. She operates Learn and Play Preschool and was recently named National Child Care Provider of the Month for her dedication to early childhood development and learning techniques. Mr. Speaker, right now in Minnesota, at this moment, Tammy and her assistant, Karla, are working with young children who will one day grow up to be great citizens and hopefully leaders of this great nation. Tammy and Karla's work keeps Minnesota and our nation moving forward. I'm grateful for them and all of our child care providers, teachers, counselors and educators who are fostering future generations of Americans across the country. I'm honored to recognize Tammy today and thank and congratulate her on the incredible work she does for young Minnesotans. *Note: This appears to be a Congressional floor speech rather than a TV/radio interview transcript.*
