Rep. Tom Emmer on Cats & Cosby

Broadcast: October 15, 2026 • Duration: 12:12

HOST:

And everybody, let's go to now Minnesota. We've got Tom Emmer. He is the majority whip of the House. And Congressman Emmer, we love having you on. And boy, is your state red hot. It's in the middle of it all. Let's first get, if we can, to the Senate race there. We've had Michelle Tafoya here on the show, who is terrific. And the new numbers, that seat may flip red. What are your thoughts?

REP. TOM EMMER:

Well, I think it is gonna flip red. And thanks for having me. Minnesota, we've been saying, Minnesota's gonna be a surprise. And Michelle Tafoya, you know, you win campaigns, you win elections with good candidates and the right message. And Michelle Tafoya is a great candidate. I'm so glad she wants to serve her country. And the message in Minnesota is all about fraud and corruption. That's all Democrats have given us in Minnesota. And you know, you want to elect a Minneapolis liberal, which isn't even a liberal anymore. She's a Minneapolis communist who's the Lieutenant Governor with Tim Walz, who has overseen this fraud for the last several years. Or do you want to elect a new voice, a fresh new voice, somebody with a lot of heart, Michelle Tafoya. And you're right. I think that is going to flip in 19 days.

HOST:

She was one, you know, we interviewed her last week. She is one smart lady and one sharp gal. And I was so surprised and I think Minnesota could flip. I really believe that.

REP. TOM EMMER:

Well, the polling has been pretty consistent where they keep telling you how close it is. You know, when it's close, that usually means, John, that we're ahead. So in this one, I think that's exactly what's happening. I've seen polls from Southern Minnesota have Tafoya up by two or three points. And you really haven't seen her down. You've seen her either tied or up. Everything's within the margin of error. So I'm with you, John. I think she is going to flip this seat. I think Minnesotans are sick and tired of the corrupt, incompetent leadership that they've been getting from Democrats. And they're looking for a change. I think we got a great shot of the governor's race with Lisa DeMuth. I think we've got a great shot with the Secretary of State with Tad Jude. I mean, it's just, it's one of these elections where Minnesota's unlike any other state because of the Somali fraudsters, the complete theft of Minnesota taxpayer dollars, which has been proven. This is why that is the number one issue in Minnesota. And that is why Minnesotans, I think, are gonna vote for a change in 19 days.

HOST:

And everybody, we're talking to House Majority Whip, Tom Emmer from Minnesota. And Congressman, what's interesting too in this case, just as you brought up, and you know the state better than anybody, is Peggy Flanagan. She is the Lieutenant Governor. I mean, that's what's so amazing is that she can't run away from being a major part of the Tim Walz administration. And as we know, there's been so many problems with Tim

Auto-generated: this transcript, summary, key quotes, and topic tags were produced by automated speech recognition and AI analysis and may contain errors or mischaracterizations. Refer to the source video for the authoritative record.

Walz and all the Somali fraud and so many of the other issues with him. And she was his right-hand gal, right? So it's like everything, all these issues that we're talking about with the Somali fraud and the Luring Center and all that, she's a part of that.

REP. TOM EMMER:

Yeah, look, I gotta tell you, yes, it's Somali fraudsters and it's Somali gangsters. Literally, there are shootings every night. There are reports. They shut down a homecoming game a week ago where a bunch of Somalis started a gunfight at a suburban high school homecoming football game. And yes, Peggy Flanagan has been at the center of all of it. Just look back a year ago, you will find footage of Peggy Flanagan dancing around wearing a hijab because she thinks she's going to be part of the Somali community with one of her friends in the Somali community who was subsequently indicted in one of the fraud cases. So people know, here's what's beautiful. People are smarter than these left-wing media types give them credit for. And I think Minnesotans are fed up and have had enough. And that's why Tafoya is going to be the choice in 19 days. And I think Republicans are gonna do very well in Minnesota.

JUDGE WEINBERG:

Mr. Whipp, it's good to talk to you again, sir. What concerns me is you have a congresswoman, one of your colleagues in the house, unfortunately, who's under significant investigations about immigration fraud, perhaps financial disclosure fraud. This is becoming very, very serious. And all she says is you're only picking on me because I'm against Trump. What are your thoughts about that? And of course you're talking about Ilhan Omar.

REP. TOM EMMER:

That's right, Omar. Yeah. I mean, first off, she is a professional victim. There's no one who plays the victim better than Ilhan Omar. When people try to hold her accountable, the first thing she screams is racism. Then she screams you're a xenophobia. Look, this gal is a racist and she is an anti-Semite. She is literally what she blames others for. And right now, look, it's finally, it seems that it's catching up with her. There have been rumors for years about marrying her brother to commit immigration fraud. There have been rumors and probably more appropriately facts about how she created a certain federal funding program through the Department of Education during the pandemic, which then the Somali fraudsters in Minnesota built for 250 million. By the way, the Somali fraudsters are friends and neighbors. She's seen dancing around with them at one restaurant celebrating their great success. And then most recently, she lifted going from about 60,000 in assets to being worth up to $30 million with her new husband. So she has been under investigation apparently for more than one thing, not surprising. The one thing, Judge, that we should emphasize is the investigation that came to light the other day with the search warrant was actually started by the Biden administration. It predates Donald Trump returning to office. And the warrant that was issued, people need to understand that warrant had to be approved by a federal district court judge looking at the evidence that was presented that a judge, he or she, and by the way, this should be emphasized too. I've been told the judge that made this decision was either an Obama appointee or a Biden appointee. And looking at the evidence that was presented, that judge had to say there is probable cause that a federal crime was committed. And I guarantee you, since the subject was Ilhan Omar, that warrant was scrutinized before that judge signed off on it. I hope Ilhan is finally gonna be accountable because where there's smoke, you guys know there's fire and there's been smoke here for years.

HOST:

And one of the things, Majority Whip, when I think about Ilhan Omar, every time everything happened with Donald Trump, it was no one's above the law. She was like the first in line to say impeach, impeach, impeach. And now she's gotta eat her words. No one is above the law. You know what she's doing tomorrow? She's out rallying with Mr. Piker on behalf of El Sayed in Michigan. Remember, this is the guy who says the U.S. deserved 9-11. This is a, Ilhan Omar is a bad person. She's a-

Auto-generated: this transcript, summary, key quotes, and topic tags were produced by automated speech recognition and AI analysis and may contain errors or mischaracterizations. Refer to the source video for the authoritative record.

REP. TOM EMMER:

You know what, I wanna ask you, did you just say that Piker's gonna be with El Sayed tomorrow too as well?

HOST:

With Ilhan. Oh, that's an interesting match. I don't know if El Sayed's gonna be there, but they must be doing it somehow on behalf of El Sayed. Oh, that's interesting, in Michigan. I will look. Somebody sent me a note that said, Ilhan Omar is gonna be rallying tomorrow with Piker in Michigan. Let's make sure he's-

REP. TOM EMMER:

Yeah, that's interesting. Rallying with the terrorist Hassan Piker tomorrow. And no, it doesn't say Michigan, but it's gotta be in Michigan. But it is interesting that they're pairing together. Boy, after everything that we've heard about Hassan Piker and that everything she's dealing with, but that's what I call two peas in a pod.

HOST:

Oh, well, it should be two peas in jail is where they should be. These people are bad, bad news.

JUDGE WEINBERG:

Mr. Ammer, going back to that race, you have one of the most qualified people ever to run for the United States Senate, your former colleague, Mike Rogers, the chairman of the House Intelligence Committee, former FBI agent, in a time when this country's under attack both by foreign enemies and internal enemies, we need somebody of the integrity, ability, experience of Mike Rogers, and look what they're putting up against him, it's outrageous.

REP. TOM EMMER:

Wow, they're putting up a false Muslim prophet by the name of Al Sayed. By the way, guys, nobody talks about, they spent 60 million trying to beat him in a primary. The problem was they had a terrible candidate running against him. I mean, he's not this amazing, charismatic candidate like the Mamdani, the commie that you deal with there in New York. He's average at best. He thinks American football is toxic masculinity. He hangs around with terrorists, loving people like Hassan Piker, who say that Americans, 3,000 some Americans deserve to die on 9-11. This guy not only doesn't deserve and should never be in the US Senate, but he should be out of this country. He shouldn't even be here, let alone running for office. Mike Rogers, as far as I'm concerned, Mike Rogers is the only choice in the Michigan Senate race. And you're right, he's overqualified for the job. But then when you look at who's in the Senate right now, that's not hard to do. Remember the last time we were together, I said that the former vice president was in my office. And what did he say? The Republicans might have lost their way a little bit, but the Democrats have completely lost their minds.

HOST:

Yeah, well, John, they aren't Democrats.

REP. TOM EMMER:

They're not Democrats, they're socialists. I'm sorry, these people are communist Marxists. When they say DSA, I'm gonna keep saying this. We gotta quit calling them democratic socialists. This is a made up term by Bernie

Auto-generated: this transcript, summary, key quotes, and topic tags were produced by automated speech recognition and AI analysis and may contain errors or mischaracterizations. Refer to the source video for the authoritative record.

Sanders, someone who has never done anything in his life. He's never built anything, he's never had a job. All he's ever done is flapped his gums in an anti-American way. And he creates this term democratic socialist. First off, there is nothing democratic about socialism. If you look at the platform that these people have written, they wanna defund the police, they wanna defund prisons, they want an open border, they want their Green New Deal, which is gonna cost every family in this country $355,000. These people are not socialists. These people are Marxists and communists. And we need to make that clear to the voters when they go to the polls on the third.

HOST:

Well, we have a common sense Democrat. We have the former governor of New York, David Patterson, here. All I wanna say is, please send me a copy of what you just said. We all echo it. Well, thank you so much, Majority Whip, Tom Emmer from the great state of Minnesota. Thank you very much. Thank you, Tom, it's great to have you.

REP. TOM EMMER:

Thank you guys.

This transcript was independently produced by MN-06 Watch for accountability and archival purposes.
Source: (October 15, 2026)
Archived: October 19, 2026
Source URL: https://youtu.be/bHkg5mfcG7w
For questions or corrections: mn06watch@gmail.com

Auto-generated: this transcript, summary, key quotes, and topic tags were produced by automated speech recognition and AI analysis and may contain errors or mischaracterizations. Refer to the source video for the authoritative record.