Rep. Tom Emmer on Cats & Cosby

Broadcast: October 29, 2026 • Duration: 7:17

RITA:

And joining us now is Tom Emmer. He is the House Majority Whip of, of course, the United States House of Representatives. And Congressman Emmer, it's so great to have you. You are like the Energizer Bunny. You're like President Trump. Talk about, you know, just crunch time and what are some of the big races that you guys are really working on and really focused on to keep, of course, the House and the Senate.

REP. TOM EMMER:

Well, it's great to be with both of you, Rita, John. we have been on the road a lot as you know we are not like president trump though that guy is a machine rita he is everywhere all the time uh he is the uh the definition of the energizer buddy but we're doing our part i think uh after saturday we will have hit uh 60 cities and 56 districts and you ask where uh well we're working on pennsylvania we're working on iowa we're working on arizona We're working on Texas. We're working on Florida. And this really is a turnout game. You know, you hear everybody talk about this is a contrast election, which it is.

REP. TOM EMMER:

It's a contrast between common sense, which is literally what Donald J. Trump and Republicans represent in the U.S. House and the U.S. Senate versus crazy. And in some cases, even versus communism, which is what this democratic socialist nonsense is really all about. I mean, really defund the police, defund prisons, open the border. I charge every American family three hundred and fifty five thousand dollars for your green news scam. I mean, it is a contrast election. But the reality is it is also a turnout election. Midterms are all about the turnout, Rita. Everybody should know that the party in the White House is usually pretty satisfied. Donald Trump and Republicans have been delivering on the promises that were made that 77 million people voted for in the 24 presidential elections. So they're generally satisfied. Democrats, at least they really aren't Democrats anymore, these Marxist, communist anarchists.

REP. TOM EMMER:

They have Trump derangement syndrome. They are very activated. So the goal has been to wake up our people and make it very clear. If Republicans show up in the next five days and come out and vote, if you haven't banked your vote already, make a plan to get out on Tuesday. We get our people out, Rita. We're going to be just fine.

JOHN:

Yeah, it's the common sense. And we need common sense in the whole country. And I think especially the Midwest and the Far West. I mean, there's a lot of common sense out there where people are not going to vote for socialists because that's not the American way.

Yeah, John, I wish I wish they were socialists. I mean, there's there's nothing democratic about socialism. and we're letting Bernie Sanders, a guy who's never built anything, never run anything, never done anything except flapped his gums about how bad America has treated its citizens when in fact it's just the opposite.

REP. TOM EMMER:

By the way, this guy somehow has managed to get wealthy sitting in the U.S. Senate creating nothing. Somebody should look into that. But he's now telling us that they're democratic socialists. Again, that is a false term. Talk about the biggest oxymoron you could have. What did they want us to call them in the last century, John? They wanted us to call them progressives. Guess what? They were already socialists in the last century. It just wasn't cool to call yourself a socialist. Now they've gone beyond that. Now they're Marxists. And people better pay attention to who these people really are because our kids, unfortunately, associate socialism with social justice, social good. They don't realize that that ideology has killed more human beings around the globe in the history of mankind than any other. We've got to show up. We've got to vote.

RITA:

And we're talking to House Majority Whip Tom Emmer here. And Congressman Emmer is speaking of dirty tricks and all this other stuff. What do you make of what happened in Alaska? Everybody's talking about this The two Dan Sullivans And it's the New York Times That says it was obviously part of a big Democratic scheme

REP. TOM EMMER:

Are you kidding, Rita? Should anybody be surprised? These guys are, you know, look First off, they're going to do whatever they can Whatever they can to somehow succeed That's adding third-party candidates In this case, it's even worse They added somebody with almost the identical name to the sitting senator in order to confuse the voters and siphon off votes from Dan Sullivan. It's ridiculous. Look, Democrats have been doing this for years. They lie to the American public. I will tell you, 2018, Donald Trump's first midterm. You remember that, Rita? They said, we are our left of center Democrats. We're going to reach across the aisle. We'll protect your First Amendment rights, your Second Amendment rights.

REP. TOM EMMER:

You remember the biggest lie they told back then? We are going to fire Nancy Pelosi. It's all a lie. They're doing it again. And Americans are smarter than they think they are. Again, we got to get up. We got to go up, make a plan, vote, and we'll we'll protect this country for this generation and generations to come.

RITA:

And before we let you go, you're a Minnesota guy. What do you think is going to happen with that big race there? Michelle Tafoya and Peggy Flanagan, who I mean, she's trying to pretend like Tim Walton. She was his right hand.

REP. TOM EMMER:

Yeah, well, it's pretty interesting. Peggy Flanagan is a way, way out of the mainstream left-wing Marxist anarchist type candidate. Keep in mind that a year ago she was dancing around in a hijab with one of her Somali friends who she's known for years, who, by the way, was subsequently indicted or was under investigation, I should say, and has been denied the ability to work with Medicaid. I wonder why. By the way, I'm traveling with our great vice president, J.D. Vance, tomorrow to St. Cloud, Minnesota, where he's going to make a big announcement about the investigation that is ongoing in Minnesota and all the fraud. And I think that is the key. Peggy Flanagan does not deserve to get any promotion. She should not be in elected office. Michelle Tafoya, guys, I told you this before. We've discussed her. She just keeps getting better and better on the stump. She is what Minnesota needs, and I think she's got a good chance to win on Tuesday.

JOHN:

I agree with you. I think she does have a good chance to win. She's very sharp. She used to be, I guess, a reporter, wasn't she?

RITA:

Yeah, for a long time. ESPN analyst. She's great. So I think she has a good shot. Let's see what happens.

REP. TOM EMMER:

Yep. This is why they play the game, John. and people have got to make a plan and vote.

JOHN:

RITA:

Well, thank you so much for talking.
