

Rep. Tom Emmer on House Leadership Stakeout

C-SPAN

Broadcast: 2026-04-21 • Duration: 2:05

*REP. TOM EMMER:

 Well, another day and another headline about a certain Congresswoman's not so stellar record of honesty and competence. Last year Ilhan Omar's financial disclosure revealed skyrocketing wealth. It showed a whopping net worth of up to 30 million dollars, a 3,500 percent increase in wealth compared to just two years prior. Now she's trying to convince the world that she's actually only worth $95,000. Still quite a jump from two years ago, but in an eye-popping revision of her disclosure, Ms. Omar is saying the multi-million dollar discrepancy was nothing more than an accounting error. In what world is a multi-billion dollar correction to a person's financial disclosure considered normal? Perhaps this member's accountant, perhaps Ilhan's accountant, is a graduate from the Quality Leering Center. Either way, this about face shows incompetence at best and a cover-up at worse. But this is just the latest in a long list of head turning stories relating to this member from Minnesota. Ilhan cannot escape accountability much longer. Investigations are ongoing in House committees. The Trump administration has waged war on fraud. Her ties to convicted Feeding Our Future fraudsters are well documented, and her defense of these criminals who stole billions from hard-working taxpayers makes it very clear where her allegiance stands. Make no mistake, if Ilhan Omar is discovered to have been involved in any or to have benefited in any way from any fraud, she must be held accountable to the fullest extent. And by the way, that includes marriage fraud. I yield to our leader. Note: This appears to be from a House floor speech or committee hearing rather than a traditional TV/radio interview, as evidenced by the formal "I yield to our leader" conclusion.
