

Rep. Tom Emmer on One America News

OAN

Broadcast: 2026-04-23 • Duration: 2:03

*TAYLOR TINSLEY:

 House Majority Whip Tom Emmer says that Ilhan Omar's revised budget disclosure isn't clearing her of any suspicion. Here's One America's Taylor Tinsley. Democrat Representative Ilhan Omar has amended her financial disclosure forms, removing a so-called error that listed companies tied to her husband as being worth $6 to $30 million. Her updated filing removes those multi-million dollar valuations while still reporting income in the range of $100,000 to $1 million. Omar maintains that she is not a multi-millionaire, calling it a rounding error.

*REP. TOM EMMER:

 $65,000 or $95,000 to $30 million, that's not a rounding error. And I'll tell you what, the idea that an accountant prepared this for, I do financial disclosures here in Washington. If she had an accountant, if that's actually true, which I seriously question, that accountant no doubt is a graduate of the Learing Center that Nick Shirley found in downtown Minneapolis.

*TAYLOR TINSLEY:

 House Majority Whip Tom Emmer says Omar's record-keeping skills remain sketchy at best, fraudulent at worst. Speaking to One America News Thursday, he emphasized that she filed this disclosure months ago.

*REP. TOM EMMER:

 This has been in the news since the end of last year. We have all been talking about it. She's been investigating, people are investigating it, and she didn't seem compelled to correct the record until this week. People have to ask themselves why, because she had shown a 3,500% increase in income in just two years, and they were showing it through a winery.

*TAYLOR TINSLEY:

 Nine days after she filed this amended financial disclosure, they dissolved the winery. According to the California Secretary of State's Business Registry Portal, the Santa Rosa-based winery was terminated on April 4th. Emmer insinuates it looks like Omar is trying to cover her tracks.

*REP. TOM EMMER:

 It's with the House Ethics Committee, and Tom Holman, who we're all familiar with, said they have some incredibly bright people digging into her files right now. I think the day for reckoning is on the way for Ilhan Omar, and it can't come too soon.

This transcript was independently produced by MN-06 Watch for accountability and archival purposes.

Source: OAN (2026-04-23)

Archived: April 24, 2026

Source URL: <https://youtu.be/al1bO8vOk48>

For questions or corrections: mn06watch@gmail.com