REP. TOM EMMER:

Welcome. What a great start to this amazing convention. Let's hear it for the man with the vision to hold this event, our Commander-in-Chief, our leader, President Donald J. Trump. All right. All right, this is my job. I do the pep talk. We're just 55 days from Election Day, so let's get right down to business. As you've heard, this is an election between common sense and communism, between America-loving patriots and hate-America extremists, between freedom and tyranny. The Communist Party, excuse me, the Democrats, have no leader and they have no message. The only thing they can agree on is their disgusting hatred of America and our great president. These people are sick. Have you followed what these radicals want? They want to defund the police. They want to open the borders to fentanyl and criminals. They want to abolish the Senate. Well, all right. And they want to raise your taxes for free health care for illegals. By the way, these people and the left-wing corrupt media want us to call them democratic socialists. It's another lie. Do not let them do it. There is absolutely nothing democratic about socialism. By the way, these people aren't even socialists. They're communists and they're anarchists and they hate our country. In November, we have a clear choice. You can choose the 12 by 12, dilapidated, government-owned housing and the crumbs of food that Mamdani the Commie is offering. You can choose to go with America haters like Ilhan Omar. Ilhan Omar who wants to raise your taxes while allowing Somali fraudsters to run free. You can even choose to listen to Abdul El-Sayed who wants to get rid of fireworks on the 4th of July and replace the Second Amendment. I know, I know it sounds crazy, but even that cartoon network CNN reported it. By the way, this evil man pals around with people who believe Americans deserved to be attacked on 9-11. Think about that for a second. In other words, El-Sayed's closest friend believes nearly 3,000 Americans deserved to die on that fateful day 25 years ago. Someone might want to remind these guys, if you don't love this country, if you don't love America, if you're not happy here, then get the hell out. USA! USA! USA! To the American people listening, I say, if all you want out of life is what little these communists are offering, I guess that's your right, or you can join Donald J. Trump and Republicans and have the opportunity to realize your greatest dreams, to achieve your greatest potential, to live free in the greatest country the world has ever known. We, we will give you that shining city on the hill by working hard, playing by the rules, respecting law and order, and by protecting our freedoms. You can live your American dream. By the way, the Democratic communists may not like it, but I am proud to be an American. USA! USA! USA! Look, you've heard it already tonight, you'll hear it a lot more. This is a country worth fighting for. We will not let the Marxists, communists, and anarchists destroy it. We are going to be that shining city on the hill for 340 million patriotic Americans. We're going to show that the foundations of this country, individual liberty, economic freedom, and hard work still matter. And, and we are going to win in November. God bless you, God bless Donald J. Trump, and God bless the United States of America.
